Police Make Bet, Arrest Man Here For Bookmaking

No Connection With Big Operators Seen

Police walked in on Stephen Schiattacasse, 45, at his Texaco gas station at 7400 Mission yesterday afternoon, placed a two dollar bet, (the horse didn't win) then arrested the man for making book.

After watching Schiattacasse closely for the past couple of weeks, local officers moved in yesterday. Officer John Coleman placed the bet, then he and Inspector August Benaccini made the arrest.

Schiattacasse was released from the county jail after posting a $1,000 cash bond. He is scheduled to appear in police court here on Wednesday for arraignment.

According to Daly City police, Schiattacasse freely admitted his bookmaking operations, and said he had been taking bets since January. He allegedly took bets at the station for friends, then later phoned them in.

It was a one-man operation, police say, and the gas station operator is not tied in with any ring, as far as can be determined.

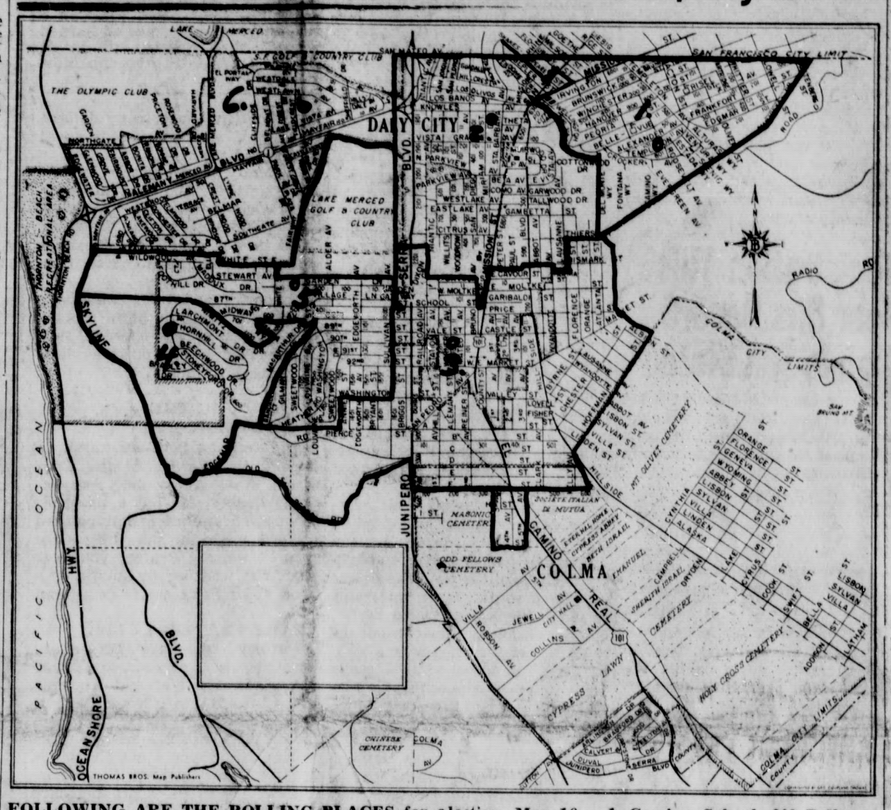
Schiattacasse allegedly received 10 per cent of the net on each bet, and took in about $25 to $30 a day.

Police say Schiattacasse was taking bets from local people, and they became interested after receiving several tipoffs on the operation.

This was the second bookie raid made this year in Daly City. The first raid took place about a month ago at the Serra Motel.

$1,200,000 ELECTION SLATED FOR AUGUST

Here's Where To Vote In School Election, May 16



FOLLOWING ARE THE POLLING PLACES for election, May 16. 1. Crocker School, 649 Bellevue avenue, Daly City. 2. Woodrow Wilson School, 43 Miriam Street, Daly City. 3. Jefferson School, 14 Alemany Street, Daly City. 4. Residence of S. R. Johns, 820 Stoneyford Drive, Colma. 5. Garden Village School, End of Garden Lane, Colma. 6. Westlake School, Fieldcrest Drive and Lake Vista avenue, Daly City.

Four Issues Up To Voters

City improvements totaling more than one million dollars will be submitted to voters at a special August election, THE RECORD learned today.

Taxpayers will be asked to approve:

1. Construction of a $500,000 water system in Westlake. This will include a reservoir on Skyline boulevard and a new well on the Alemany extension near Park Merced drive.

2. Construction of a new fire house in Westlake. Estimated cost of this project is between $65,000 and $80,000.

3. Completion of the Community Center building at Alp and Mission streets. Estimated cost of finishing the building is $150,000.

Councilmen have not decided, but chances are they also will ask voters to approve:

4. Construction of a $500,000 sewage treatment plant. This will be located in the Westlake area, and will replace the present method of dumping sewage into the ocean.

While fate of the first three improvements is entirely up to the discretion of voters, the sewage treatment plant is a mandatory measure. The state has ruled the city must halt the operation of using the ocean for sewage disposal. Should voters reject the bond issue, the state would step in and "force" the measure.

Residents are expected to pay for the sewage plant through regular monthly payments of a sewage bill, much like they now pay for water. This would not, then, raise the total tax rate.

Revenue Bonds

The water system, too, will be retired by revenue bonds. One city official told THE RECORD that profits of the water department may be great enough so not to make a water rate hike necessary. In other words, he believes, the cost of building the water system can be absorbed without any noticeable hike in the overall tax rate or monthly water bills.

Completion of the Community Center and the new firehouse would, however, up the tax bill. This will raise the present $1.29 per $100 assessed valuation from 12 to 16 cents.

Councilmen point out however, despite the high cost of these improvements, they are all necessary.

"The longer we put them off, the more it is going to cost both in inconvenience and money," a councilman said.

Definite date for the August election is expected to be set later this month.

B'moor. Annexation Question Slated For Friday Meet

Residents To Elect Director Members

A move aimed at setting the machinery in motion to annex Broadmoor to Daly City may be launched at the election meeting of the Broadmoor Property Owners Association Friday, May 9, THE RECORD learned today.

Primary purpose of the meeting is to elect six members to the board of directors. However, there is a move afoot to pas a resolution calling for annexation.

This was attempted some time ago, but was stopped by a group of Broadmoor residents led by Thomas Jenkins. Jenkins, who is now seeking the Democratic seat in the state assembly, said the board of directors did not have the legal right to call for annexation...at least by passing a resolution.

"We believe this must issue from the people, from the residents directly involved," Jenkins said.

This was the first rumbling this spring of a controversial question in Broadmoor. Late last year several Broadmoor residents attempted to have a petition circulated calling for annexation. This move appeared to have failed, or at least been shelved.

Meanwhile, the six candidates who have formally filed for reelection to the board include: Joseph Belli Jr., store manager and long time Colma resident; William O'Neil; Mrs. Ann Read, the only woman seeking a post; and incumbents George Alexander, James McKay and Vincent Cauchi.

Other nominations may be accepted from the floor.

The meeting is slated to get underway at 8 p. m. in the Broadmoor Comumnity Center, 714 White street.

Tax Election Set

District Ask For Two Tax Approvals

Two important tax items will apepar on the special ballot May 16 when residents of the Jefferson elementary and high school districts will be asked to vote on the tax rate.

The elementary school district is asking the voters to arppove a boost in the tax rate from 93 cents to $1.53 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

This will be the first time in five years the district has asked for a tax rate increase.

The high school district is asking a yes vote on continuing the present tax rate limit of $1.35 per $100 assessed valuation, also set five years ago.

Those in favor of the increase in the elementary district claim that the rapid growth in the state and in this district, plus increased cost of running the schools makes the increase a necessity.

They also claim the rate here is extremely low when compared to towns of similar size throughout the state. Officials say that $1.80 per $100 assessed valuation would be needed here today in order to equal the purchasing power provided by a 90 cent tax rate in effect in 1940.

Opponents of the increase point out that the 50 per cent increase in the tax rate will adequately handle school needs. Those on the other side of the fence say no. They note that the average daily attendance money given the schools by the state each year will drop as the tax rate goes up and the district is placed in a richer bracket.

Opponents of the increase also say that enough money is being

BASEBALL CONTEST DRAWS MANY ENTRIES

This contest is both amusing and profitable. See THE SHOPPING NEWS today for full details.

Answer Is Given To Signs Destruction

The raging controversy about candidates tearing down each others campaign posters was explained this week.

A truck from the state department of highways drove through Daly City. In the back of the truck an employe, with no political bias, pulled the various signs off PG&E and other poles.

Seems it is against the law for candidates to post their signs on posts...regardless of what office they are running for, or against whom.

Jefferson High Students Shun Dope

Superintendent Says "No Marijuana Here"

Marijuana has failed to get a foothold in the Jefferson high school system, Stanford Hannah, superintendent of the school, declared today.

His statement followed the arrest Wednesday of a Burlingame high school boy who allegedly was supplying the dope to his fellow students.

A. L. Lamport, special district attorney investigator, indicated this was the first in an expected series of arrests of juvenile ring peddlers throughout the county.

"Of course it is difficule to keep tab on all 1.000 students, but to the best of my knowledge we have no dope problem at Jefferson high school," Hannah said.

In Burlingame the picture is different. One school official there said the smoking of marijuana has been "pretty widespread" among the students.

With the arrest of the Burlingame 18-year-old, Lamport reported the youth led them to a cache of several hundred dollars' worth of marijuana, both in cigarette form and bulk.

The investigation started over a month ago when rumors first reached Burlingame police that local high school students were using marijuana, Chief R. C. Theuer said.

COUNCIL TO CALL FOR BIDS MONDAY

Bids for the new Marchbanks utility building are expected to be called for at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening, May 12.

Estimated cost of the building is about $3,000. It will include lavatory facilities and small storage space.

Residents are cordially invited to attend this meeting which gets underway at 8 p.m. in city hall, 75 Wellington avenue.

Harris Appointed New Bank Manager

Appointment of Daniel D. Harris as manager of Daly Ciy branch of Bank of America was announced today by L. M. Giannini, president of the statewide financial institution.

Harris, who has served as assistant cashier in the local branch of the bank for the past two years, is being promoted to fill the post formerly held by F. Erickson. Erickson is now on extended sick leave.

A native of San Francisco and a seasoned employee of the bank, Harris has served in various operational capacities in Bank of America shince joining as a messenger in the Market-New Montgomery branch in 1930. These positions include city collection clerk, reclamation clerk, commercial bookkeeper, and savings and commercial teller.

Harris receive assignment to personnel relations department in the San Francisco head office in 1943, and two years later was promoted to assistant cashier. He

B'moor May Lose Local Police Aid

Broadmoor's police department soon will have to look for another means of broadcasting police calls.

To-date they have been using the services of the Daly City police department, at no expense. However, the point has been reached where almost 10 per cent of the calls here are from Broadmoor, Dan Andersen, city administrator, said.

"The council feels this is too great a load," Andersen declared, "and has requested the Broadmoor department to set up its own broadcasting system."

Further discussion of the problem is slated for June 2 when the city council meets with the Broadmoor police commission.

Plans Shape Up Rapidly For Big Spring Festival May 18

Planning activities for the big Spring Festival May 18 have reached the feverish stage, and recreation department officials have promised this fifth annual festival will be the gayest and the best.

The parade up Mission street will be eliminated this year, due to a decision by the school board against allowing vehicles on the field. To compensate for this, the recreation department has concentrated on a field program which promises to be the biggest and grandeest thus far. Time for the event is 1:30 p.m.

The field program will contain some 450 performers from many organizations in Daly City.

The only problem remaining is the selection of a master of ceremonies for the occasion. The recreation department is still looking for someone who can adequately carry the events, and be an attraction in himself. Name performers are now being considered.

Following the flag raising exercise and the playing of the Star Spangled Banner, the Daly City Band, under the direction of George Brenner, will open the program. The flag ceremony will be handled by Boy Scout Troop 249.

The Festival Queen's processional will take place following the opening ceremonies. Queen Judith Logan, from the Garden Village school, was elected queen for the day. She will be crowned by Mayor Paul Green. Her attendants for the occasion will be Gail Smith, Carolyn Smyser, Sandra Calavano, Alexis Malone, Sandra Picardo and Lucille Whitney.

A gigantic Maypole dance will follow, with six maypoles being wound simultaneously. The Bunnie Carrol's Studio Dancers, Loise Andre's Studio Dance, and Leota's Studio Dance will participate in this event.

The field program will reach its climax with a variety of colorful and entertaining dances. The square dance, wild west dance, blue tango and folk dancing are representative of the programs to be presented.

Singing will be supplied by a

Cancer Drive Here Is Great Success

Daly City's cancer drive has been a big success according to Mrs. E. Byrne, chairman. More than $400 has been contributed to date.

With donations still coming in, it is expected the $300 quota may be doubled for the area. "We realize the public is aware of the great need for cancer research," Mrs. Byrne said, "and we wish to thank all for the generous support of this cause."

The chairman also extended thanks to THE RECORD, to H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the elementary schools, the ABC Printing Company, the Daly City Theater, City of Daly City, and all workers who gave their time.

Optimist Club Forming Here

Residents interested in joining a newly organized branch of the national Optimist Club are invited to a meeting Monday, May 12, noon, at the Club Casino.

George Bignotti, membership chairman, extended the invitation today and declared: "I hope we will have a large turnout, as the Optimists have much to offer."

Several civic leaders interested in formation of a local chapter met recently to discuss the Optimist Club. This is an organization pledged to aid and encoruage the development of youth throughout the world.

spent on teacher salaries, and that proposed increases are not necessary. School officials answer by saying the boards are in a competitive situation—and must meet going wage scales in order to get qualified teachers.

"The good ones—and naturally we want the best—are not going to come to Daly City unless we pay a comparable scale," officials say.

Figures based on an estimated assessed valuation of $25,000,000 in the elementary district show that with a tax rate of 93 cents the district would receive $220,000. If, however, the increase goes through, the district will receive $363,466—an increase based on the estimated valuation of $142,536. State apportionment for next year is estimated at $375,516.

This would make possible a total budget of approximately $738,000—which officials say could do the job.

Refreshments will be served in colorful stands by the PTA groups of the city. Coffe, doughnuts, hot dogs, soft drinks, ice cream and popcorn will be available at the field.

Stage decorations are being taken care of by members of the Daly City Garden Club.

remained in headquarters in personnel, instalment credit loan promotion, and special administrative duty until 1947, when he was assigned to Parkside branch.

Harris came to the Daly City branch in March, 1950, and has become well known in the business life of this community since that time. He is married and the father of two children.

Fond of sports, Harris played first string short-stop on the Bank of America baseball team for 10 years, seven of which the team won the city championship in its league.

Planning Group Being Organized

Plans for the newly organized planning commission were discussed at the regular caucus meeting of the city council Monday night.

It is hoped that an ordinance creating the commission will be ready for a first reading this Monday. The planning commission is expected to go into operation in June.

The council will appoint five or seven men to the board for terms ranging from one to three years. After the first three years, members will be chosen for a four year period.

Unlike other local commissions, the planning group will have more than advisory powers. According to state law, such an organization can rule on the desirability of certain zoning, and generally decide on new and old building problems.

Kefauver, Brown To Clash At Dinner

The first face to face clash between Senator Estes Kefauver, democratic presidential candidate, and Edmund G. "Pat" Brown, Attorney General of California, who is heading a Democratic uninstructed presidential delegation, will take place at the Jefferson-Jackson dinner to be held Friday evening, May 23, at the San Mateo County Fiesta building, East twenty-fifth avenue, San Mateo. Scheduled first as a campaign fund raising event, the dinner will become the first major battleground in a series of crucial debates to capture the all-important democratic delegation to the national convention.

Featured speakers will be Kefauver, Brown and Congressman Clinton D. McKinon, Democratic candidate for United States Senator from California.

In view of the recent public disagreement between Brown and the California leaders of the Kefauver forces, the event will attract a large audience and may easily become the biggest Democratic rally in the Bay area.

The dinner is sponsored by San Mateo County Democratic leaders under the direction of Marion H. Trent, chairman, and Frank Rose, co-chairman.

Continued defense spending at present rates can bankrupt the nation, the House Armed Services Committee warned recently.

The average American employee pays more than one day's pay per week in direct or indirect taxes to the Federal government.

Younger Names Vet Chairman

Major James Swett, Peninsula Congresssional Medal of honor winner, has been appointed chairman of the veterans committee for the "Younger for Congress" campaign in San Mateo county, it was announced today by Dan Minto, general campaign chairman.

Swett is a life member of San Mateo Post No. 82, American Legion. The World War II Marine Corps ace was a member of the famed "Fighting Falcons," Marine Corps fighter squadron, and is cedited with having shot down 7 Japanese planes in one day and accounting for a total of 16½ planes.

In accepting the post of veterans committee chairman for the Republican congressional candidate's campaign, Swett declared: "In talking with veterans everywhere I have found them disillusioned with the way our country has been run by a small clique in Washington whose disregard of the meaning of the word 'democracy' has heretofore gone unchallenged.

"I firmly believe that men of honesty and integrity, like Arthur Younger, are logical candidates to help clean up the corruption now existing among those in high places. It is with pride that I can sincerely recommend Arthur Younger as a man who will not only represent San Mateo county with honor but will help restore America to the kind of land which we found worth fighting for."

Senator Parkman Making Personal County Campaign

State Senator Harry L. Parkman, senior senator in the California State Senate, who seeks re-election June 3, from San Mateo county, is making a personal county-wide campaign.

In his county campaign tour Senator Parkman told various peninsula groups:

"The tremendous growth of San Mateo county is reflected in the upward trend of its registered voters.

"For instance—this week newspapers reported that San Mateo county's registered voters number 134,344—an increase of 24.8 per cent over the 1950 primary election figure.

"This means that there has been an influx of new people in our county—electors who will play an important part in San Mateo county's future by their ballots in the coming June primary election.

"These new voters must look beyond the empty campaign promises made to them by inexperienced theorists who will try to influence them for their votes.

Campaign promises are an inexpensive commodity around election time.

"I am basing my campaign for reelection to the State Senate NOT on promises—but what I have done in the interests of public welfare and economy in the past; and what I can continue to do for the taxpayers of the State and this county in the future. My long seniority and experience as a legislator is of great value to San Mateo county and its people."

Loan Insurance In Effect At B. of A.

A life insurance provision in Timeplan auto loan contracts that will provide payment of balance of account in event of a buyer's death before completion of payments has been authorized today by Bank of America, bank officials disclosed.

Written into a car financing contract at a pourchaser's request at a cost of only 38 cents per $100 per year, the policy requires no physical examination, contains no age limitation, and covers death from any cause. It will give the deceased's beneficiary clear title to the auto, it was pointed out. Coverage as high as $3,500 is permissable on any one account, with an overall maximum of $10,000 allowed.

Bank of America two years ago introduced a life insured savings account under the now-famous insignia, LISA. The bank's auto loans outstanding amount to hundreds of millions of dollars.

TAKING DEMONSTRATIONS

An aspect of car performance that few motorists every think to check during the demonstration drive is its ability to take curves without rolling or sidesway, according to the National Automobile Club. To make the test in any of the new cars is to learn one of their greatest advancements over the car one happens to be driving—and to make their allure that much more irresistable.

Vets Have Only Three Weeks Left To File Exemption

Little more than three weeks remain for veterans who own property in San Mateo county to file for their anual $1,000 property tax exemption, Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Office of San Mateo county, pointed out today.

The state constitution, which extends the tax exemption to veterans of all wars—including the Korean conflict—requires applications to be submitted at County tax assessors' offices between the first Monday in March and the last Monday in May.

This year's filing period ends at 5 p.m. on Monday, May 26, Granger reminded veterans.

He underlined the fact that wives of servicemen or veterans now away in active service are allowed to file on behalf of their husbands for the $1,000 exemption.

Unremarried widows of California servicemen and in some cases the widowed mothers or pensioned fathers of deceased servicemen are eligible for the property tax exemption, Granger noted.

In the case of World War II and Korea veterans, the yearly exemption is granted under state law to veterans who were on active duty at any time between December 7, 1941 and May 16, 1946, and to veterans and servicemen who have been on active duty after June 27, 1950, when the Korean emergency started.

Registration This Year Hits Record High In San Mateo

A record registration of 134,344 voters for the June 3 primary election in San Mateo county has been announced by County Clerk John A. Bruning.

The all-time high primary registration represents a 24.8 per cent increase over the registration of 107,678 for the 1950 primary and 43.5 per cent increase over the 93,602 for the 1948 primary registration.

As the registration in San Mateo county climbed the Republicans narrowed the margin traditionally held over them here by the Democrats.

With the closing of the registration period for the June 3 primary this year, the Democratic party claimed 49.8 per cent of the total number of registered voters to the Republican party's 47 per cent.

PG&E "SAMPLER" MEASURES SIERRA SNOWPACK "WATER." With their Sno-cat, hero of the City of San Francisco train rescue, standing by, James Watts and Arthur Chase twist a "sampler" deep into the Sierra snowpack (near Donner Summit), which is expected to produce heavy run-offs this month and next. The two Pacific Gas and Electric Company men will weigh the snow-filled tube on a special scale to determine how many inches of water are contained in the snow sample. The "water content" is then evaluated to determine just how the Company's hydroelectric plants can be run most effectively during the runoff.

Markovich Appeals To Average Voter

Voters with an interest in efficient, honest, state government are lining up today behind the candidacy of Peter Markovich for the new north county seat in the state assembly.

The Daly City businessman is proud he is running on his own merit, and has made no entangling political promises to gain support.

"Because I owe no one but the voters anything, I will be in a position to see that San Mateo county is represented in the assembly by the people, not by power groups."

As a basic plank in his platform, Markovich has promised to do everything in his power to clean up corrupt lobbying in the assembly. He feels it is time the people were represented, not groups able to make themselves heard by the number of dollars they can put up.

Markovich, who has been a leading figure in school affairs locally and throughout the county, is also pledged to support measures which will relieve the shortage of school facilities.

"We need a realistic building program, one which will be reasonable and thorough. I believe taxpayers may have schools and at the same time save many dollars, but only if school funds are spent wisely and well."

A family man and resident of the county for the past 40 years, Markovich is in an excellent position to understand the problems faced by the county residents, as well as the solution to those problems.

Supporters point out that a vote for Markovich June 3 will be the best insurance the average resident has for better, efficient, honest state government.

PROTECTING THE CAR'S FINISH

Fog and sun both are harsh on a car's finish, reminds the California State Automobile Association. Coastal fog has a tendency to rust chromium and unpainted surfaces while the sun oxidizes the painted areas. Protect your car from the weather by giving it a good waxing at least twice a year.

LEAK IN BATTERY CELL

Battery cells are not above springing a leak now and then, points out the National Automobile Club. If, in having the battery filled with water, one cell consistently needs more than the others, the chances are that it is leaking. The remedy is to take the battery to an expert and have it repaired at once.

Jacob Bollenbach New PTA President

Herbig, San Mateo county co-ordinator in special education.

Corsages and boutonniers were provided by the 17th District. A film of last year's Sierra Morena camp trip was shown and a discussion of plans for the June 5 pot luck dinner followed the business meeting.

JENKINS SUPPORTS JEFF HIGH TAX RATE

Thomas Jenkins, Democratic candidate for the state assembly from this district, today joined other civic leaders in requesting voters to maintain the present tax level at Jefferson high school.

"The school is not asking for an increase, only funds necessary for operation," the Broadmoor attorney said.

Jenkins urged everyone interested in better schools to vote at the election Friday, May 16.

Muni Lines May Cut Free Riding Priviledges

San Francisco's muni railway line's fare boost will possibly effect free-riders, says utilities manager James H. Turner.

Turner agreed to re-examine the city's free-rider list when it was learned that employees of several other city departments, in addition to railway employees, ride on passes.

The fare hike will go into effect June 1. It provides for a straight 15 cents per ride fare on all muni lines. In addition, school children's tickets will be increased from 50 to 60 cents per ten rides, and the Sunday trip pass will go from 35 to 50 cents.

Big Financial Bite Coming This August

Progress is a great thing, but it is now catching up with Daly City in painful financial bites.

The biggest bite is proposed in one grand election this August. At that time taxpayers will be asked to approve completion of the Community Center building, a new firehouse in Westlake and a new water system in Westlake. On top of that, residents are faced with the mandatory proposition of passing a bond issue to construct a sewage treatment plant.

All and all, the cost for these various projects will be well over a million dollars. Fortunately, this will not mean a great boost in direct taxation, as revenue bonds probably will finance the water and sewage plants. However, there is no escape for the cost of living going up and up in Daly City.

All of these improvements are unquestionably desirable, and possibly necessary. It is too bad they had to be compounded year after year until suddenly they fall out of the blue on the already harassed taxpayers.

What makes it more interesting is the inescapable fact that progress spells expenditure. As the city continues to grow there will be a greater need for improvements—all of which are costly.

Therefore, to keep putting off the inevitable, to reject the bond issues coming up in August, is only to ask for more and more headaches.

Groaning under the burden, taxpayers are sure to point an accusing finger at the city council. This is one time when the finger should be pointed only at themselves. Thanks to a lack of interest in city affairs, residents have let these matters slide along until they have finally reached an impassable wall. Had the taxpayers kept an eye on the progress of the city and gauged expenses accordingly, many of these improvements could have been taken care of months, or years ago.

At any rate it is going to take quite a selling job to put over all these measures come next August. We would hate to be in the shoes of the councilmen who are faced with such an order.

Let's Put An End To Wandering Dogs

Man's best friend hasn't been so friendly in Daly City these past few weeks, and it is about time a peace agreement was signed.

It seems the local dog population is taking great delight in roving free and recklessly over lawns and gardens. At the same time other less carefree pooches are passing the time by taking small bites out of local residents.

Unfortunately, what started out to be little more than doggy fun, has developed into a serious matter. The necessity of the city taking definite action to curb these roving dogs is obvious to everyone . . . even dog lovers.

We all grant a city is no place for a pooch. But those who do have to make their homes here, should live in peace. While dogs are sometimes blessed with more common sense than their masters, they have a hard time understanding what is wrong with cutting out for the wide open spaces. It is the duty of the owner to keep their pets within bounds.

Too many owners are not living up to their neighborly obligation. Therefore, it is necessary for the city to step in and "educate" the dog owners.

This, we believe, can be done by stepping up the penalty for dogs which are picked up wandering loose in the neighborhood. Make the fine stiff enough so as to encourage dog owners to obey the law. Money collected from these fines, in turn, could be turned over to the pound department for its use.

We recommend the city council take immediate action to step up these fines, and to enact other simple measures which will put an end to dogs, in one day, biting four people.

The Record Endorses Mrs. Cheatham

Having examined the record of the candidates for the Jefferson elementary school district board of trustees, THE RECORD recommends residents support Mrs. Helen Cheatham.

As an incumbent Mrs. Cheatham has the natural advantage of being familiar with the workings of the school board. But above and beyond this qualification, we believe her admirably suited for the job she now holds.

Time and time again she has shown a direct and honest approach to school problems. We have not necessarily agreed with her on many of these matters. However, we never questioned her sincerity or honesty in meeting those problems and doing her best to solve them.

As a mother, and active member of the Parent Teachers Association Mrs. Cheatham is aware of the many difficulties facing parents. As a local resident and home owner, she too can sympathize with the burden of the taxpayers. In other words, she has a well rounded background of the overall school picture.

We have always admired Mrs. Cheatham for not only taking an active interest in education, but showing an admirable awareness of city business. She is one of the "old faithfuls" at city council meetings, and by not fearing to speak has saved many a taxpayer as many a dollar.

Therefore, we definitely recommend voters, May 16, cast their ballot for Mrs. Cheatham, a wise and able school board trustee.

Mothers Day In Daly City

No one deserves a special day of honor more than mother does. She deserves all the nice things said about her, all the nice things given her. But she deserves much more.

She deserves tenderness and consideration from her family the rest of the year too. She deserves not to be taken for granted. Or taken for little more than a housekeeper.

We feel that, however fitting the Mother's Day remembrances may be, the more important thing is that it not be an occasion when the family tries to make up in 24 hours what it has failed to do in the preceding 364 days.

Mothers are human beings—a fact which seems to escape some individuals. They are not so constituted that they can endlessly serve the needs and the whims of their families on a round-the-clock basis without feeling the need of occasional rest and recreation. By this we don't mean that mothers generally are treated like so much slave labor, but that home is unusual in which her services are fairly evaluated and properly appreciated.

If on Mother's Day the family will consider the many things mother does for them every day the occasion will have real meaning and lasting value.

Council Chamber Needs PA System

What happened to plans for a public address system in the city council chamber?

As a reader pointed out last week, it is almost impossible to hear at the regular council meetings. The chamber is an echo chamber which makes it difficult for a councilman to be heard past the first row of seats.

This problem was recognized by the council over a year ago. We understand plans were drawn up, and tentative bids were called for a PA system. But the plan faded away, and nothing was heard, not even the voices of the council.

It appears an investment in mikes and speakers would be well worth while. If the residents were able to hear clearly their elected officials, we might have a greater attendance at the council meetings.

At any rate, anything is worth a try which will encourage more interest in city affairs.

We hope the council will take up this matter again, and find the funds necessary to install a public address system.

Spring Comes To Daly City

Now that the weather has settled down to the sunny California normal (Daly City is not normal, at least in this respect), we are beginning to realize spring is really here. And quite welcome, too.

That certain pleasant fever for which complete rest or a good baseball game is the only cure, and the far-away look which affects eyes are common symptoms of the season. But it's also a time for a bit of doing on things that couldn't be done when it was rainy and cold.

The fence needs fixing and a little paint would brighten the house. Then there's the roof. That must be repaired before wet weather comes again. And as for the kitchen improvements, they're long past due.

Well, better get busy. There's no time like spring for clean up and fix up. Maybe you can't or don't want to do all the work yourself but there are lots of able tradesmen ready to help. (Take a look at the ads). And if you're short of cash the bank will finance the work for you. Give you plenty of time to pay it back, too. All of which doesn't leave much excuse for not getting started.

There's always one sure compensation in improvements—the satisfaction and pride in our homes and our community. Nothing quite like it.

Jefferson High School Board Trustee Asks For Maintenance Of Tax Rate

May 8, 1952

To the voters:

On May 16 you will be asked to vote to continue the present tax rate for the Jefferson Union High School District. This rate was approved by the voters in 1947 for a period of five years.

You all know that your high school district has experienced a period of very rapid growth and this will continue for many years to come. As a result of the growth of our community the enrollment in the elementary schools has had a tremendous increase and these children will soon be in high school. That is why plans are being drawn for an additional building at the present high school site, and steps being taken to establish a second high school in the next few years.

If we are to maintain high educational standards in the community, and assure all these students adequate educational facilities, a YES vote is justified at the election on May 16.

It is important to again bring out that a YES vote on the Jefferson Union High School District ballot will NOT increase the present tax rate.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Mildred McGeein,
Member, Board of Trustees
Jefferson Union High School

Residents Urge Voters To Keep Mrs. Helen Cheatham On School Board

May 7, 1952

Editor:

As an interested mother in the Crocker school district, I am concerned in keeping a woman active on the Jefferson elementary board of trustees.

Mrs. Helen Cheatham, a woman with three years sincere work for the good of the school children, will be a good trustee.

I urge everyone to vote in the May 16 election. Please think carefully, because we want to maintain the best in education for our children.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Joe Holt

May 6, 1952

Editor:

After attending some of the school board meetings in the past year, we, a group of Westlake residents, feel very strongly that Mrs. Helen Cheatham has been invaluable on the board; and must be reelected as elementary school board trustee at the coming election, May 16.

She has always accepted the full responsibility of her position and has shown an excelent grasp and understanding of school board problems.

Mrs. Cheatham has worked hard to provide an adequate educational program for our school system. Such problems as increasing enrollment, limited space and inflationary costs have been, and still are challenges in the maintenance and development of a growing school district. She has contributed her time and effort without any renumeration.

She brings to the board the viewpoint of a mother of two children in the school system.

The Jefferson elementary school district needs a woman such as Mrs. Cheatham to help direct its policies of progress.

Sincerely,
A group of Westlake Residents
Mrs. G. Bozzini, Mrs. L. Farber, Mrs. F. Gates, Mrs. J. Hiller, Mrs. F. Peasley, Mrs. J. W. Selherstees

McGuffin Calls For Boys' Ranch

Lyman E. McGuffin, candidate for supervisor of the first district, today pledged his support toward the establishment in San Mateo county of a boys' ranch for the guidance of teenagers who show tendencies toward delinquency.

The revolutionary program which would be operated on a 24 hour basis and in conjunction with the public school system has been under study by District Attorney Louis B. Dematteis, civic leaders, educators and law enforcement agencies here for more than a year and recently was presented to the supervisors for their consideration.

"One of the major weaknesses in our present juvenile corrective system is the lack of proper guidance for the boy who has not yet become involved with the law, but who is showing tendencies in that direction," the former San Bruno mayor and city councilman declared.

As presented by the study committee, the program would offer 24-hour supervision with training in agriculture and other manual trades plus the basic requirements in fundamental educational subjects. The ranch would be operated under the direction of the school department and could be set up at a modest expenditure.

Bill Katz . . . FROM A CORNER

Here's how to whip through an evening without benefit of television.

1. Attempt to imitate a Whinchat. This little European bird sings well and has an inferiority complex. Who wouldn't feel inferior living in whins? A whin is any particularly hard rock. If you can't find a rock, lie down on the floor. Now you are in a whinchat's mood. Pucker up your lips and whistle, you may not look like a whinchat, but who is to know if you don't sound like one.

2. Now that's over, stuff any old malayan tapir hide you may have around the house. This is an excellent way to learn taxidermy. It is also helpful practice in aiding your wife squeeze into a girdle. If your wife looks like a malayan tapir, it might be better to forget the girdle. Just shoot her, stuff her, and put her over the mantle. It will be an object lesson for your next wife.

3. Less strenuous activity can center around crocheting a tartan plaid. Once the plaid is completed you can unravel it again. French grenadiers were great for crocheting, but they were so busy they forgot to fight. This has nothing to do with the subject, but may be helpful in a cross word puzzle or contest.

4. Chew your fingernails. This is especially helpful when neurotic or your fingernails are long. Some prefer to gnaw on their toenails. This is fine as exercise, but not particularly sanitary. It also may alarm guests who chance to drop in for a spot of tea.

5. Study haplosis, or diplosis. Any way you look at it this will lead to reducing the chromosome number by the division into two haploid sets in meiosis. Which will lead you to conclude biology is for the biologists, or Dr. Kinsey. Sex is a pretty wonderful thing.

6. Call in the spaniel. One look at his drooping ears will convince you it's time for bed. Kick the spaniel out of the house, dash into the kitchen and whip up a large bowl of sowens. Dawn your sou'wester and dig in for a hearty, messy meal.

7. Fed, and ready for bed, switch on the TV set. You don't want to miss the midnight movie.

This schedule may necessitate the services of a physchologist, but life will become much more interesting.

Stan Bibbero . . . BIBBERO'S BABBLE

Now the mad race starts, and if you don't own a television set brother, be prepared for healthy sneers from the neighbors. Just like not having a bathtub in the house.

Your family car? It better be a bright, shiny new job, equipped with radio, heater electric razor and built-in bar.

How come? Credit controls are off and all bets are cancelled. Minutes after the decision to jettison Regular "W" some sharp dealers in Los Angeles (where else?) were hauling up big banners — No money down. Thirty-six months to pay. Why walk when you can drive?

But don't get worked into a lather. Nobody's giving anything away these days. Sign on the dotted line if you want, but read the fine print, or you'll wind up minus an arm. Like these San Francisco dealers. Five bucks down, on approval of credit. Approval of credit. A nice sounding phrase, which doesn't have anything to do with your credit rating. It means do you have enough furniture in your home to serve as collateral? If not, brother, you're a bum, and please don't bother us.

Daly City merchants are plugging for a local chamber of commerce—something no city should be without. For one thing, it would ease the strain on employees at THE RECORD, who are asked everything from the fishing hours on Lake Merced to the address of the nearest steam bath for pet poodles. Not that we mind answering the questions. Just that we hate to be caught flat-footed and ignorant, which happens. Oh, my yes.

Here's a word of warning about that C. of C. Such organizations dearly love to brag about the weather in their towns—especially in California. I know one chamber with the following slogan, "Above the fog and below the snow." You can't be too careful. It's been snowing there for the past three years. The name of the town? Paradise. (It is, so.)

What kind of weather slogan could we dream up for Daly City? "Where the wind blows, the water flows and the fog goes."

Good start for a new officer of the law. Guess you read where Bruno Conci, just recently appointed to regular status as a permanent copper, tied up with a three-time-loser after a wild chase, and did right well. The baddie, who had been leap-frogging his car all over San Francisco to the great annoyance of the men in blue, tried to knock Conci's gun from his hand after being halted.

Disturbed by this unfriendly action, Conci flattened the would-be tough guy with a mighty blow. Interesting punch he used, too, and proof of modern police teachings. He came down, but hard, with the edge of his hand on the guy's shoulder, just where it joins the neck. One of the most painful and paralyzing blows I know about.

By the time reinforcements arrived, Conci had the situation well in hand. San Francisco cops take notice.

Ridgely Cummings . . . HOLLYWOOD

Like many another community larger and smaller, Hollywood has developed various rudiments of the cultural life. One of these germinal excresences is an open forum usually devoted to lectures on hypnotism, marriage, "modern psychology in the atomic age," hormones for the good life, metaphysical philosophy and similar topics on the esoteric fringe.

A song recital follows the discussion. Then the chairs are cleared away and there is dancing to a three-piece band. Thus are combined the attractions of the intellectual life with those of a lonely hearts club, all for 90 cents admission.

Announcements of these events appear in the local papers and until the other evening I had successfully withstood their allure. Then I read, or thought I did, that Jesse Lasky was going to discuss the movies. Since Jesse Lasky is one of the great pioneers of the industry, I went to hear him.

A mild penalty accrued from reading too hasily and too carelessly. It was Lasky Junior who took the floor. Young Mr. Lasky turned out to be a writer with Columbia Pictures. His thesis was: "Why Motion Pictures Are Better Than Ever."

The moderator, who introduced the speaker of the evening, was an aspiring politician named Monty Randall. A plump man with a red face and lank brown hair, dressed in a cream-colored, double-breasted suit, Mr. Randall modestly referred to himself as "we." He let the audience in on the secret that we are running for congress, that we had started the forums two years ago, that we believe in stressing spiritual values in this atomic age, and that this evening the speaker was not only a screen writer but a poet and a novelist.

Mr. Lasky turned out to be a solidly built young man with a round face and head, black hair cut crew style, heavy horn-rimmed glasses which he put on and off, and a neat dark blue suit. He was nervous at the start and pardonable so since, as he told us, his mother, wife and sister were in the audience. The first of these had never before heard him talk in public, he said, and he didn't think writers were much good as talkers anyway, a sentiment with which I heartily agreed.

After rattling on in a jittery fashion for some minutes about his family and his boyhood in Hollywood, Mr. Lasky put away his glasses, grasped the lecturn firmly with both hands and began talking about motion pictures.

The average American movies is far better than the average foreign film, he said. Only the very best are exported to us. He had been in Europe recently and had seen a number of films which were way below the level of our "B" pictures. Those never get across the ocean.

Drawing a parallel between motion pictures and the publishing industry, he said that each year some 12,000 books are printed but only a handfull are "worthwhile." If out of 400 films a year, 40 or 50 proved memorable, then he thought the producers had a better average than the publishers.

Those were his two major themes, which he expanded on at some length, discussing the small percentage of stage plays that are successful and emphasizing that various books are written to appeal to special audiences while movies must be made for a broad mass base.

Censorship he thought was a fine thing. This surprised me for I have talked with other screen writers and they seem agreed that it is the various pressure groups which keep movies on their current low level.

But as Mr. Lasky sees it, the censors perform a valuable service in reminding the movie makers that their product is enjoyed by all kinds and conditions of people—school children and pensioners, housewives and executives, clerks and college professors.

Writer, director and producer must put into each picture something to appeal to each of these segments of the population, he stressed.

Television is a fine thing for the film industry, he thought, for television is a challenge and without challenge there is no growth.

There was a question period during which little of interest evolved except for an inquiry from some disgruntled writer (not me) as to why the industry ignored the talents of so many gifted writers.

Mr. Lasky replied that he was a member of the Sceen Writer's Guild, which had a membership of 1200 and that in the busiest of times only 400 of the members were working, so writing was a hazardous profession at best. This was not news to me.

Then, at the request of someone in the audience, Mr. Lasky introduced his mother, wife and sister and retired to hearty applause.

Next on the program was Cobina Wright, Sr., author of "I Never Grow Up," a new book. Miss Wright said she had made and lost several fortunes and that she had written her book to tell readers, especially women who had suffered financial reverses, that material possessions were secondary in importance to friends. She spoke briefly and with apparent sincerity.

Followed a Mexican dance and several songs by a Mexican soprano who, the moderator assured the audience, could hit a higher note than anyone else in the world, F sharp above C above high C. I thought of Yma Sumac and Erna Sack but kept my peace. The soprano, Alma Petroza, had recently been in an auto accident so didn't feel up to attempting to break high note records on this occasion.

Then came the dancing, with music by the Herb Bloom trio, a Dixieland combination that wasn't bad at all. And so another cultural evening passed into Hollywood history. With yours truly as probably the sole chronicler.

Traffic Deaths Show 11% Drop

Californians killed fewer of themselves on the highways last month than in any month since January 1951, the California Highway Patrol reported today.

March, with its death toll of 161, was the third lowest month in two year, bettered only by January 1951 when there were 153 fatalities and May 1950 when the death climb halted at 142.

Last month's traffic deaths were 11 per cent under the 181 rung up in March 1951 but 25 per cent higher than March 1950 when the toll was 128.

Patrol officials pointed out that these deaths resulted from accidents occuring on state highways or county roads in unincorporated areas and that city reports would push the final statewide toll higher.

The Patrol added something else to dim the brightness of the picture—the fact that accidents involving injuries were increasing.

There were 3,601 persons injured in 2,239 such accidents last month, about 9 per cent more than in March 1951.

The drop in fatalities during March was credited to voluntary or forced reduction of death-dealing speeds on the part of many motorists.

speeders eventually wind up in an accident or in a traffic court, warned the Patrol, adding that enforcement activity is up about 15 per cent over what it was a year ago.

Hanrahan Outlines Qualifications

Asks Voters' Support For School Board Job

Claude E. Hanrahan, candidate for trustee of the Jefferson Elementary school district, lists the following qualifications that he feels should enable him to well represent the people, and children of the district.

Born in San Francisco, he is 38 years old; father of three children (8 years, 5 years, and 6 months old); graduate of San Francisco state college with A. B. degree and teaching credential; two years graduate work at Stanford University, school of education; holds California state teaching credential; taught in San Francisco school system;

Three years as playground director in San Francisco; Three and a half years in Navy in World War II; Two years as instructor in Naval Science and Tactics at University of California at Los Angeles; Authorized to conduct Red Cross junior, standard, and advanced first aid courses; Member board of directors of Broadmoor Property Owners Association; Member San Mateo-San Francisco Coordinating council for combating juvenile delinquency.

Hanrahan is presently Superintendent of a large San Francisco business concern.

If elected he will strive to maintain the high educational standards now in effect in the school district.

Hanrahan feels the prime function of the schools is to send to higher education, or business, boys and girls well grounded in reading, writing, spelling, mathematics, and the social requisites that go toward making them good citizens.

Jeff High School Observes Public Schools Week Here

More than 1,000 visitors admired and wondered at the exhibits and demonstrations in the Jefferson Union high school auditorium last Friday evening.

Public School Week was a real success. Many complimented the band, which was under the direction of Alfred Runnells. The demonstration of modern dance given by girls under the guidance of Mrs. Mary Newswanger was interesting and well done. John Matthews, veterans of the physical education department, presented a group of boys in tumbling and gymnastic acts.

Each department showed work done or being done by students. As visitors entered the auditorium, they were attracted by a display of art and craft work. From then on, booth by booth, parents and others were able to visit with the instructors and examine work done in classes. Some departments had equipment set up and gave demonstrations. The home making department baked and served cookies, which made that corner a very popular one.

Many were interested in the display of cedar chests and other wood work. The art metal, machine shop, and auto mechanics also attracted wide interest.

The articles made in ceramics and the potters wheel of that exhibit held most visitors for a time. A demonstration of stage make up by the dramatics class proved to be of interest.

The academic classes were not outdone. Their exhibits were colorful and popular with the visitors.

The evening provided a fine opportunity for parents and others to become better acquainted with the work of the school and with the members of the faculty.

For years experts have been saying that totem pole making is a lost art and the Canadian Government has put an embargo upon the export of these Indian relics. But out around Hazelton in Northern British Columbia, some new totems are going up, like this one. A definitely modern touch is the brassiere. The lady doesn't look any happier than the low man used to. From the position of the hands and the expression on her face, it would seem that she just ate something she shouldn't have.

MAKE IT A "HIM-HER" SHOWER

By BESS BANCROFT—ANS Features

EVERY BRIDE-TO-BE LOVES A SHOWER but must it be an all-girl affair? Why not let her share that pretty shower umbrella with the most important man in her life who is, ironically enough, forever being left out in the rain. If all the girls bring escorts it will be a much livelier party to boot!

YOU CAN SET THE STAGE with a double cake centerpiece, one initiated for her and one for him. Make them in heart shaped baking tins and decorate with lacy shredded coconut framing an old-fashioned "engraved" medallion in the center. For extra drama, tint the icing a pale pink, or better still, tint the coconut. Coconut takes beautifully to coloring and is easy, quick and fun to do. The two hearts side by side on your prettiest tray will be a focal point for a party that both the bride and groom-to-be will remember together.

SHOWER CAKES FOR TWO

- 2⅔ cups sifted cake flower
- 3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 5 egg whites
- ½ cup sugar
- ⅔ cup shortening
- 1¼ cups sugar
- 1 cup milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla or grated lemon rind
- Seven-Minute Frosting
- 1½ cups shredded coconut, tinted pink

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Beat egg whites until foamy, add ½ cup sugar gradually, and continue beating only until mixture will hold up in soft peaks. Cream shortening; add 1¼ cups sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add flavoring. Then add meringue and beat thoroughly into batter. Turn into two deep 9-inch heart-shaped layer pans which have been lined on bottoms with paper. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 30 minutes, or until done. Cool.

Spread Seven-Minute Frosting on tops and sides of cakes. Moisten sifted confectioners' sugar with a small amount of water and outline a heart in the center of each cake. Fill in hearts with a thin layer of the confectioners' sugar mixture to form a smooth surface for lettering. Sprinkle rest of cakes generously with tinted coconut. Using a pastry tube filled with pink-tinted confectioners' sugar cream frosting, outline each heart and write name in the center.

TO TINT COCONUT: Place 1 teaspoon milk or water in a bowl. Add a few drops red vegetable coloring and mix well. Add coconut and toss with a fork until coconut is tinted throughout.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Ira E. Hunt, Wichita, Kans.: I remember when people believed in ghosts and haunted houses. One such house was in our vicinity. Stories were told of strange noises in the house at night such as thumps on the stairs and the clanking of chains. The night wind sighing through the pine trees sounded a note of eerie requiem.

From Mrs. Molly Reese, Castor, La.: I remember when my mother carded and spun thread and wove cloth to make our clothes and counterpanes and bed covers on an old wooden loom. My dad made shoes and used wooden pegs to fasten the soles.

From G. W. Secor, Dalton, Pa.: When I was a little boy in dresses living in Dunmore, and the Pennsylvania gravity railroad was in operation handling coal and freight, my sister took me by the hand and went to visit friends near the head of the number 6 plane. I used to go out on the top of a cut in front of the friends' home and watch the gravity trains come up to the top of the plane in small sections, couple up at the summit and coast down through the cut to number 7 plane, where they were hauled up to the top of number 7, and continued likewise to numbers 8, 9, 10, 11 over the Moosic mountains.

From Loyd Conley, Morganton, N.C.: I remember when I was a little boy my dad chewed tobacco and he would give me the tags of the tobacco and I would take them to the store and trade them for candy. Wish I could remember the name of the tobacco.

From Tom Meyer, Cincinnati: I remember by dad, who was baldheaded, wearing a black satin skull cap in the house all the time.

Four Parts of Tree Yield Wood Veneer

Hardwood veneers are cut from four major sections of a tree. Each section produces a distinctive type of wood grain figure, which later gives natural beauty to fine television set cabinets, furniture, wall paneling and flush doors.

"Longwood" is cut from the trunk, the principal section. "Stumpwood," from the base of a tree, has a twisted, irregular grain, distinctly different from the wood of any other section.

"Crotch" figure comes from the part of the tree just below the fork. Wood veneer cut from the crotch is called "feather crotch," "flame crotch" or "moon crotch."

The fourth section is a deformed growth found on the sides of some trees that were injured early in life. "Burl," as this is known, has a figure that is highly prized.

Buddy Poppy Sale To Get Underway Here On May 23rd

The 1952 annual sale of Buddy Poppies will be held in this area on May 23, Commander Edward Diaz, Post 9921, announced today.

The idea of selling poppies to the American public to support a national welfare program originated in 1922 with the Veterans of Foreign Wars. It was the first veteran organization to promote a nationwide poppy selling campaign.

"The idea took root," Commander Edward Diaz stated, "when Madam Guerin of France, inspired by the symbolic beauty of the poppies of Flanders, sought the cooperation of the VFW in selling poppies, made in France, to aid disabled and needy war veterans. The symbolism of the Buddy Poppy as sponsored by the VFW was promptly accepted by the American people."

Since 1924, the name "Buddy" Poppy has been registered with the United States Patent Office as the VFW trademark guaranteeing that genuine "Buddy" Poppies are assembled by disabled and needy veterans. This trademark, moreover, grants exclusive use of the name "Buddy" Poppy to the Veterans of Foreign Wars. No other organizations, firm or individual may use the words "Buddy Poppy" legally.

"After establishing the name," explained Commander Diaz, "the VFW authorized its various state departments to have disabled veterans make Buddy Poppies in nearby VA hospitals and Soldiers' Homes. This procedure is still followed to this day. It is operated under the strict supervision and accounting of the national headquarters.

"Funds raised from the annual sale of Buddy Poppies are used exclusively for veteran welfare programs. The variety of those programs has drawn warm praise from Americans in all walks of life."

Incoming president, Mrs. Larry Green, will report on the State Convention which she attended for the unit and all members are urged to attend this—one of the most interesting and traditional meetings of the year.

County T.B. Unit Will Meet Monday

The annual dinner meeting of the San Mateo county Tuberculosis and Health association will be held Monday, May 12, at 7 p.m. at the Villa Chartier in San Mateo, according to Dr. St. John Lester Russell, president of the association.

The speaker of the evening will be Mrs. Dalrie S. Lichtenstinger, formerly director of field service, California Tuberculosis and Health Association, and for the last three years executive secretary of the Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association. Her topic will be "Community Organization—Some Problems Involved in a County-wide X-ray Survey—the Los Angeles Experience." This talk will be based on a mass X-ray project made in Los Angeles county in which 1,800,000 free chest X-rays were made in nine months, and during which 4,000 new tuberculosis cases were discovered.

A report of the past year's activities of the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association will be given by Dr. Russell. It will also include a report on the 1951 Christmas seal sale.

An important part of the meeting will be the election of officers and directors for the new fiscal year.

Psychologist Explains Child Relationship To Parents During Meet

"To relax and enjoy your children is one of the most important things for parents to do in relations with their children," said Dr. Ruth Kokjer, child psychologist with the San Mateo county school district, as she addressed the May 1 meeting of the Westlake PTA.

Other principles in parent-child relationships, according to the psychologist, include setting the right example, understanding the child's point of view, adjusting expectations to reality, dealing with the child at his own level, and making sure that any punishment handed out is fair, consistent and inevitable.

Following the meeting Dr. Kokjer answered questions and assisted parents to work out problems presented to her.

Refreshments were served by the fifth grade room mothers following the talk.

The Westlake PTA will assist at the coordinating committee's food booths at the May Festival, it was announced. Mrs. Fred Kruse, of the local unit, will act as chairman of the committee's money raising project.

A committee headed by Mrs. Howard Dunbar, president, and Charles Becker, parliamentarian, and the 17th District parliamentarian will meet to consider additions and revisions to the by-laws.

"Clean out your closets, get rid of your unwanted wire clothes hangers bysending them to school with the children Monday, May 12." This was the message to members by Mrs. Joseph Friedman, chairman of the wire hanger drive.

A fall fashion show has been scheduled by the PTA unit, and a committee headed by Mrs. M. C. Fredrickson is now actively engaged in the preliminary planning.

The following chairmen of standing committees were appointed by the president and approved by the executive board: Mrs. Fred Kruse, program; Mrs. Edward Molkenbuhr, Jr., hospitality; Mrs. Sol Lieberman, membership; Mrs. Lionel Farber, room representative; Mrs. Joseph Futernick, publications; Mrs. I. W. Silberstein, health and welfare; Francis Gates, budget and finance; Mrs. R. E. Malone, recreation; Mrs. Earl W. Peasley, publicity.

Daly City Family Is En Route To Greece

To reach Athens from Daly City you take a train to New York and a boat through the Mediterranean to the ancient capital of the Greeks, reports John Sacaldasis, of the Daly City Coffee shop, 6339 Mission street.

Sacaldasis knows this because his wife, Chrisonla, and his eight-year-old son, George, are currently aboard the Greek Line ship "Nea Hellas," whose destination is Athens.

They will remain there at least six months and possibly as long as a year and a half, visiting relatives and inspecting family property in a coastal town not far from Athens.

George will enroll in an American school in Athens if their stay is extended longer than six months, says Sacaldasis.

He was a student at Woodrow Wilson elementary school up to the time the trip began.

Mrs. Sacaldasis and George will visit her brother and sister, Kalenekos Beristianon, bishop in the Greek Orthodox church, and Mrs. Sari Afrodetek.

Sacaldasis reports that Bishop Beristianon was captured by Communist guerrillas during the violent civil war that followed World War II in Greece.

The bishop was about to be executed by the Communists when he was recognized by one of their leaders and set free. The man who aided him was an old friend of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sacaldasis have made their home in Daly City for 14 years.

Hillside PTA Executive Board Meet Set May 12

The executive board meeting of the Hillside PTA will be held May 12 at Mrs. John Hillers home on Hillsdale in Westlake at 8 p.m. First gate turn right and straight ahead one block on Hillsdale, then turn right.

May 21 at 7:30 p.m. at the new Colma school off Hillside boulevard, the Hillside PTA will hold its regular meeting. A film, "Picture In Your Mind.," by Julian Bryan, in color and sound will be shown.

The children will bring home information and slips and shopping bags for the salvage drive—bags will have to be returned to the school Monday, May 12. These are to be used for rags.

Three Girl Scout Troops Gather For Outing Trip

Girl Scouts and their leaders of Troop No. 5 hosted Intermediate Troop No. 42 and Brownie Troop No. 7 at an outing last Saturday morning at Lincoln Park annex.

The hostesses were "Big Sisters" who have had camping experience. Each of them supervised the camp work and play of a "Sister" from the Intermediate troop and a "Little Sister" from the Brownie troop.

Highlight of the outing was an Honor Court of Awards, at which Karen Ward, Troop No. 5, received her second class badge, and the remaining members of the troop received their five year pins.

Driverless Car Crashes Into Home Here Monday

Mrs. William Birdsall, 448 Miriam street, was startled Monday when a driverless auto crashed into the front of her house after breaking loose from a parked position at the rear of Skyway motors at 6918 Mission.

The car, owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Woita of San Francisco, had rolled several blocks down the hill. The owners, who had left the car with Skyway for repairs, were cited by police for failure to park properly on a hill.

In the county there are now 66,972 Democrats and 63,054 Republicans.

JEFFS LEAD THE LEAGUE

SIX WINS, TWO LOSSES PUT INDIANS ON TOP OF LEAGUE

Jefferson Union high school's chances of taking the PAL baseball championship for the third straight year looked pretty good today.

The Jeffs went on top of the league last Friday when they dumped Menlo-Atherton high 2-1, and kept the top position by beating Half Moon Bay Tuesday by a score of 8-4.

However, the fact that three teams are tied for second place makes the league outcome a flip-of-the-coin proposition.

"Personally," said Jeff coach Clarence Lair, "I'd like to see the whole thing end at the finish of regularly scheduled play. We'll probably do all right in our last two games, but you can't tell what will happen in the playoffs."

Played on the Jeff diamond, the Menlo-Atherton game found Lair's leading hurler, Joe Lewkowitz, winning his third straight tilt. The win also made Lewkowitz the top pitcher in the league at latest tally.

The Jeffs two scores came from catcher Bryan McMahon, who picked his up in the sixth frame, and left fielder Izzy Galente, who was walked home.

Lewkowitz allowed four Menlo-Atherton hitters to take their base on balls, and struck out a round dozen of them.

At the Half Moon Bay game, junior Chuck Carroll took the mound and stock there throughout, giving up six hits and allowing an equal number of walks.

The big bat of first baseman Larry Blanchard cracked out a home run in the fourth. Maynard did his share with a double in the same inning.

Maynard went the full circuit, but officials ruled that he failed to touch at third base, and the Jeffs had to be content with credit for a double. Catcher McMahon made himself useful with a triple in the sixth.

Only two games remain on the Jeff schedule. Tomorrow, Friday, May 6, they meet Sequoia on the local diamond, and next Friday, May 16, they wind up the season with South City.

After that comes the fated PAL baseball playoffs, with another championship — the Jeffs hope — awaiting them at the end.

SPORTS

JEFF HURLER JOE LEWKOWITZ SHOWS the form that won him the top win-loss record of any pitcher in the Peninsula Athletic League. Lewkowitz, a junior at Jefferson Union high, came up from last year's frosh-soph team and quickly established himself as a number one threat to every hitter in the league. Last Friday's game with Menlo-Atherton put him on top of the PAL pitching roster with three straight wins, no losses.

Forgetful Angler Eats Chicken For Dinner---No Trout

By KEITH GARDNER

Trout fishing last weekend was anything but sensational according to most reports, and prospects for this one are not noticeably brighter. However, a few experiences garnered on opening day might prove of assistance to those hardy souls who intend to try it this Saturday or Sunday.

The present writer found himself last Saturday on a small stream in Marin county, and the setting was probably typical of that all over the state.

Water was high, roiled and fast. And the stream, which holds a good stock of small trout, was obviously carrying a lot of food to the fish. As in most streams that are open to the sea, local reports had it that a few salmon-sized steelhead were trapped by falling waters after they had completed their spawning.

Being as much of a sucker for big-fish tales as the next man, we concentrated on the pools that looked big enough to conceal a good-size fish and let the rest go by.

Most of the other fishermen on the creek—and there were plenty of them—were pinning their hopes on worms or salmon eggs. We took a look at the cloudy water, however, and decided that something fairly bright and flashy was needed.

This proved to be the best idea we had all day, for just about every trout that saw the glittering brass spinner that we used made a pass at it. And most of those that tried to hit the lure succeeded.

None of them were large—the biggest of the lot would have to stretch hard to make eight inches—but they came in droves. Intent on catching one of those huge—and probably mythical—steelhead, we let all the little fellows go, for after all, who wouldn't prefer a one-fish weight limit to a fifteen-fish bag limit?

Of course, the big fellows were nowhere to be seen, but after approximately one hour's fishing, they weren't even missed. The small fry kept us plenty busy throughout the day.

Eventually, we even grew tired of slipping them off the hook and returning them to the water. The solution to this was to let them jump, run and do their best to break the leader, then slacken line and allow them to throw the hook.

When the end of the day came, we trudged back to the car, kicked out of the wading boots, and removed the creel. Then and then only did we realize that, failing to catch the big fish that we wanted, we had also failed to keep any of the pan-size ones for dinner.

The memory of that small oversight, though, was erased by one charcoal-broiled chicken, well done.

Ralph's Cleaners Split In Double "A" Games

Sciandri Brothers learned the truth of that old phrase about being "took" to the cleaners last Thursday when Ralph's Cleaners downed them 5-3 in a Double A league softball tilt on the Memorial Park diamond.

Pitcher Whitey Mecham went the whole seven and allowed five hits and struck out five prospective hitters.

Last Tuesday night, the positions were reversed and the Mantille team dumped the Cleanersmen by a whopping 10-0. "The less said about that game, the better," says Ralph.

On the schedule is a game tonight, May 8, with Windbreaker AC in South City, and next Tuesday, May 13, Ralph's meet Letterman hospital.

Cancel Size, Bag Limits For Taaaing Purposes

STOCKTON—Members of the Stockton Rod and Gun Club will take to the San Joaquin river Sunday, May 11, to see how many striped bass they can catch in one day, with the blessing of the California Department of Fish and Game.

Inland Fisheries Biologist Alex Calhoun explains that the conservation-minded sportsmen will be taking part in a first-of-its-kind fish tagging expedition.

All state bag limits and size restrictions will be off as scores of club members try to boat all the stripers they come across. When a fish is landed, the cooperating angler will raise an oar. That's the signal for a cruising State boat to draw alongside, place a numbered plastic disc on the fish, and throw it back in the water.

Calhoun and Fish and Game Warden Al Doreo announce that four boats, bearing biologists and wardens, will accompany the Rod and Guns club fleet of skiffs.

When some of the tags are eventually returned to the state agency by cooperating anglers, biologists will have a little more knowledge on the migration, growth and spawning habits of the striper.

SCOUT LEADERS MEET

A "meet your neighbors" session has been called for May 14 from 12:45 to 3 p.m. in the Orange avenue recreation center, South San Francisco, for members of the North San Mateo County Girl Scout Council, it has been announced. Desert will be served.

Track Finals Rough On Locals

Qualify Six For Big Three-League Clash

Peninsula Athletic league track finals last Friday found the Jefferson Indians—along with a number of other also-running high schools—playing bridesmaids to victorious Sequoia, but never quite making the number one spot themselves.

The Jeffs managed to squeeze into one of the first three places often enough to qualify six men for the big three-league meet at Willow Glen this Friday afternoon, but finished up low in the over-all rating:

Coach Ernie Ribera watched his team's strongest section, the 30's squad, make the best showing for alma mater, but three second places were the best the boys could do against what proved to be very stiff competition indeed.

Al Schenone and Jerry Yarborough grabbed off two of the near-wins by placing second in, respectively, the 660 and 330 yard runs. One other almost-but-not-quite went to the Jeff 30's 440 relay squad, composed of Schenone, Yarborough, Webb and Hamann.

Amongst the varsity men, Mac Douglas and Don Parish made a showing on the record books. Douglas took fourth in the 440, Parish fifth in the 880.

In the 20's division, the Jeff 440 relaymen edged out San Jose for fourth spot.

Tomorrow, Friday, May 9, six of the Indian track team will journey to the Willow Glen oval in San Jose where the PAL, the Santa Clara Valley Athletic league, and the Coast Counties league will gather for their annual meet.

Entered in the big conclave will be Webb, 150; Yarborough, 330; Shenone, 660; and Herzog, high jump. The relay team of Webb, Schneone, Yarborough and Hamann will also be entered in the 30's division. Sole entrant of the varsity squad is Mac Douglas, in the 440.

Qualifiers in this meet will go to the North Coast championships, to be held Saturday, May 17, at Berkeley.

Some of the team showed well at the finals last Friday, reports Coach Ribera, despite not qualifying. Ronnie Peden breezed through the 120 high hurdles in 16.1, a time that failed to place him, but tied the school record nevertheless.

If the speedometer in your car is clicking or making any noise it is not operating properly, cautions the California State Automobile Association. Have it looked after without delay and you may prevent damage to the speedometer.

JEFFERSON'S RONNIE PEDEN, at the PAL track finals last Friday, missed qualifying by the well known hair in the 120 high hurdles. Consolation came to the transfer from Modesto high, though, when a check of the records showed that his :16.1 was the fastest time for the race that any Jeff runner had done.

Linhares Loses In South City Tourney

Art Linhares, Daly City policeman and swinger of golf clubs, went down to defeat in the South San Francisco city golf championships last weekend.

Linhares lost 3 and 2 to Jim Wilbert in the 36-hole finals at San Mateo Municipal golf course.

That the tussle was a close one is testified to by the fact that Wilbert and Linhares garnered, together, a total of one eagle and sixteen birdies for the match.

The match ended on the 34th green, with Wilbert shooting nine under par.

Inhares won his crack at the title Sunday before last when he met Orfeo DeLuca in semi-final play and downed him after forcing the match into a 19th hole playoff.

The Daly City cop was down three holes with only three left to play; he won all three to tie the game and went on to win the 19th.

Championships in other flights were decided also, with Al Silvestri beating Tim McCarthy, nineteenth, in the defeated eight of the championship flight.

J. Fitzgerald won the first flight by downing J. Stack, 2-1; L. Gianni won the second flight by beating H. Adler, 4-3; F. Casselini tripped L. Padreddi, one up, in the third flight, and W. Perlee beat J. Villanueva Sr., 2-1, in the fourth.

Hardtop Cars To Run At San Jose Track Sunday

Flat, half mile dirt track auto racing returns to Northern California Sunday afternoon, May 11, with a five-event hard top program topped by a 50-lap main event at the Santa Clara county fairgrounds.

The new track was completed recently after a winter of work, which was halted several times by rains. The half mile oval is fitted inside the regular one mile track.

In addition to the 50-lap feature race there will be 25-lap "B" race; a consolation race over a distance yet to be determined, for machines not qualifying for either the main event or "B" race; a 10-car trophy dash and the regular time trials.

Although stock car and AAA programs have been held at the fairgrounds, the May 11 race marks the initial appearance of the hard tops.

Jenkins Calls For Improving Local Signals

Necessity of improving and expanding the traffic signal system in the greater Daly City area was emphasized today by Thomas Jenkins, Democratic candidate for the state assembly from this district.

In his third week of active campaigning, the popular Broadmoor attorney said failure to work out an adequate traffic system has been due to a lack of proper representation in Sacramento.

"Local officials have done an excellent job against great odds. However, it is obvious we must have a representative in the state assembly who will truly represent the people."

As a parent, officer in the James Snell PTA and active leader in school affairs, Jenkins said he is especially aware of the need for signals in front of school buildings.

"Many children are daily risking their lives for lack of proper crossing signs and signals."

This pledge to work for the people has won Jenkins support throughout the northern end of the county. Democrats and Republicans alike are rallying to his side.

Supporters point out Jenkins has won endorsement by men and women in every walk of life. Many of the county's most prominent leaders have pledged their aid to insure his election, June 3.

Jenkins' qualifications for state assemblymen are impressive. He is a successful attorney noted for championing the cause of justice, as witnessed by his current fight to protect several Broadmoor residents who suffered severe damage in recent floods. He is a former teacher who has a firm grasp on the needs of the schools.

As a veteran of World War II, and officer of American Legion Post No. 824, Jenkins is qualified to represent the veteran in Sacramento.

Jenkins has become a well known throughout the county in previous years for his chairmanship of the local Red Cross and Community Chest drives. He has also headed successful local campaigns to raise funds for the schools.

Jenkins resides at 1148 Nimitz drive with his wife and two children, Tom, 2, and Jo Anne, 1. Jenkins is 31 years old.

Mayor Asks All To Observe Poppy Day

Saturday, May 24, was set aside as Poppy Day in a proclamation issued today by Mayor Paul Green.

In observance of the day, all citizens were urged to wear memorial poppies to honor those who have given their lives for America in the two World Wars and the Korean conflict.

The proclamation stated:

"Whereas three times in the past 35 years the young men of our city have been called upon to help turn back a threat to America on foreign battlefields; and

"Whereas our young men answered this call with high courage and patriotism, some of the finest of them laying down their lives in the nation's defense; and

"Whereas the memory of these men and their sacrifices should live forever in our hearts; and

"Whereas our memory for our war dead and the honor in which we hold them is individually expressed by the annual wearing of the memorial poppy, now

"Therefore, I, Paul Green, mayor of the City of Daly City, do hereby proclaim Saturday, May 24, to be Popy Day in the City of Daly City, and do urge all citizens to observe the day by the wearing of the memorial poppy."

Army Has Advice For Draftees

Young men facing the draft were advised today to take immediate steps to apply for enlistment choices which include Aviation Cadet and Army Office Candidate training.

Sgt. Forest H. Rucker of Army and Air Force Recruiting in Daly City and area stated young men who are not attending school should act now because graduating students are being given top priority for these enlistment choices in June. Many students are applying for these programs and deferring their actual enlistment until they graduate.

For further information concerning enlistment choices contact the USA and USAF Recruiting Station, 2865 Mission Street, San Francisco, Calif.

Frightened Thief Leaves Loot, Fingerprints

An abortive burglary of the Cruse Plumbing company on Washington street occurred sometime between Friday, May 2, and Monday, May 5, according to estimates of the Broadmoor police.

Chief Paul Schmidt reported that an unidentified burglar entered a tool shed belonging to the company and tried to steal a box of plumbers tools valued at $42.

The tools were recovered Tuesday near the Calahan Construction company, by a company employee. Chief Schmidt said he believes that the burgler dropped the tools when startled, possibly by a passing police squad car.

Police are checking fingerprints found on the sill of a window through which the burglar entered.

Taggard Pledged To Work For Peace

"All other issues are small in comparison with the world-wide search for peace," said Harold F. Taggart, Democratic candidate for Congress from San Mateo county, at a luncheon meeting of campaign leaders this noon at The Chukker in San Mateo.

"The most pathetic thing to me," continued Taggart, "is the picture of a second grade student carwling beneath a desk hiding his head during a practice air alert, thereby acquiring a consciousness of fear."

Taggart declared that our hope for peace lies in a policy of cooperation with the free countries of the world in every way possible.

Pointing out that all of our progress is being endangered by a resurgence of isolationism advocated by certain unthinking political figures, Taggart stated: "It would be fatal to forget the mistakes made in the 1920's when the League of Nations, at the crucial moment, was not supported by the United States, and nations were given the green light to plunge ahead into brutal aggression."

Judge Bocci Says Action Is Needed On Coast Highway

A plan aimed at relocation of the Coastside highway was again called for today by Judge Thomas Bocci.

Judge Bocci's statement follows the announcement made by the division of highways that the Coast highway from Edgemar to Daly City will be reopened May 15. It has been closed down for several months, pending repair of flood damage.

Cost of repairing the road has run to about $1200 a day, Judge Bocci said.

"It is obvious taxpayers can not put up with this every year. And the only solution, as I have said before, is to relocate at least a portion of the coast highway.

"I am well aware of the expense involved in such a job. However, this would be more than compensated by a good road which would not be closed down every year, and require thousands of dollars to reopen."

Judge Bocci called upon the supervisors and state highway division to at least draw up tentative plans for a new road which could be presented to taxpayers.

TO CELEBRATE NORSE INDEPENDENCE DAY

Norwegian Independence Day will be celebrated on Saturday, May 17, at Dovre Hall, 3543 18th street, San Francisco, under the auspices of the Norwegian National League.

The master of ceremonies, Conrad Wahle, will introduce the speaker of the day, Colonel Bernt Balchen, noted explorer and Colonel in the United States Air Force. The rest of the program will consist of the Norwegian singers, folk dancessr and a trio of musicians.

Dancing and refreshments will follow the program.

The General Education Board was founded in 1902 by John D. Rockefellow with an original endowment of $129,209,177, to "promote education within the United States without distinction of race, sex or creed."

Sagehorn Promises To Lower Taxes

"Al Sagehorn's pledge to workers of the county that he will work to reduce high federal taxes has resulted in formation of a special county-wide committee within organized labor to support his Congression candidacy," it was announced this week by Michael B. O'Connor, veteran San Mateo labor leader.

O'Connor pointed out that economists estimate the average union member now works one day in every three for the government, and said he cannot carry this load.

"All Sagehorn shares their growing concern over this tax burden, and has pledged he will work to eliminate government inefficiency and unwise spending—the basic way to reduce need for high taxes," O'Connor stated. "From his record as county treasurer for 17 years, and our study of the several Congressional candidates, we are convinced he is the man who will work most effectively toward the goal of immediate and substantial cuts in government spending."

Seniors Take Look At San Mateo Jr. College

A large group of high school seniors recently spent a full day at San Mateo Junior college where they had full opportunity to observe the college at work. Also, the college open house drew a large number of adults during Public Schools Week, with the men and women visiting the different departments and observing exhibits and class work.

The students were introduced to the new president, Dr. Elon Earl Hildreth at assemblies held on each campus. He addressed them in serious vein, stressing the importance of good scholarship and the need for young people to select fields of work where they would be of service to their country and fellow men.

BECKER CAMPAIGN MOVING FORWARD

The campaign of Judge Charles Becker for election to the new municipal court of northern San Mateo county June 3 was moving into high gear this week as the candidate announced that each of the communities in the judicial district was springing up with Neighborhood Committees working for Judge Becker's election.

Formation of these community groups—comprised of housewives, businessmen, working men, doctors, dentists, lawyers, and civic leaders—was taking place on a voluntary basis, Judge Becker said.

Judge Becker is officially endorsed by labor.

He declared that these people who are volunteering their time and effort on his behalf are doing so, for the most part, because they believe the new judgeship should be filled in June by a man who will represent all the people . . . who has no affiliation with any political machine.

Densley played a clarinet in the 25-ma norchestra for the two and a half hour long show. A satire on cavalry life, "Yellow Ribbon" had a cast of 30 actors and vocalists and was the largest of its kind in the Far East.

During the tour of Japan, the show was presented on schedule at 14 military installations despite the vast amount of properties, which weighed more than 9,000 pounds. The troupe was a self-sustaining unit on the trip and received favorable comment after each performance.

Callan Calls For Intelligent Tax Program

Necessity of a well balanced, equitable tax program on both local and national level was stressed Tuesday, May 6, by Thomas Callan, candidate for the San Mateo county board of supervisors.

Speaking before the League of Women Voters of San Mateo the north county businessman said the ever-increasing cost of government dictates an intelligent tax program.

"We must attempt to pay our way as we go, but at the same time must not tax ourselves to death."

While taxes were an important part of his speech, Callan also touched on other points in his positive election platform. In so doing he endeavored to show that action is needed if county improvements are to keep up with the county's rapid growth.

His Tuesday appearance is but one of many Callan has and will make before civic and fraternal groups throughout the county. This Thursday he will address members and friends of the Sharp Park Improvement Club and the Women Voters of South San Francisco.

Callan hopes to present personally his straightforward program, for he believes voters are interested in meeting the men they are to vote for June 3.
